

Curt Hofer

Chief Executive Officer
Jasper Stone Holdings, LLC
President, Manager
Jasper Stone Partners, LLC

Curt currently serves of as the CEO of Jasper Stone Holdings, LLC—a private company that owns a diversified portfolio of companies he founded or co-founded which operate in the real estate development, real estate investment and residential construction arenas.

He is also currently serving as the President and sole Manager of Jasper Stone Partners LLC, a company that has specialized in serving high-net worth individuals and families who have an interest in financial diversification by investing in select private real estate opportunities across the Midwest, completing more than $500 million of real estate transactions. Beyond building a significant real estate portfolio over the past twenty years, Curt is leading the Avenue One project under Jasper Stone Partners.

Over a period of 14 years, he patiently managed to assemble more than 200 acres of prime development ground from 10 different owners. This ground is in the process of being developed into a projected $1.2 billion regional mixed-use urban town center that will include a mix of commercial office, medical, national and local retail businesses, and residential uses.

Nationally and locally, Curt is most well-known for the company he founded in 1991 that is currently operating under the name of Curt Hofer and Associates. The current performance and reputation of the leadership and management team that continues to run this high-end residential design and construction team is well respected and honored in Eastern Nebraska.

Curt's strengths lie in creative thinking, strategic planning, and leadership/management development. He loves people and has passionately taken the belief that most people "want to make a difference" in life by carving out significant time to volunteer in the local community, Nebraska politics and his local church. Curt has also served many non-profit Boards including the Board of Directors of the Metro Omaha Builders Association.

Mr. Hofer holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Grace University in Omaha, Nebraska, where he presently serving his 15th year on the board of trustees. After raising four children, he and his wife Linda, of 31 years, continue to mentor dozens of newly engaged couples every year because they believe our nation will become stronger if we can build stronger families.
